

Alexa Knopp

413 N West Ave • Currently residing in, Fayetteville, AR 72701 • Dallas, Texas
972.979.1338 • apknopp@icloud.com • www.linkedin.com/in/alexa-knopp

Summary of Qualifications

A Third year Interior Architecture and Design major at the University of Arkansas with a combined 3 years of being a full time student and an active member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Currently a student member of ASID. Strengths include:

- Adobe Illustrator, Adobe photoshop, Adobe InDesign, Revit, Enscape, Rhino, and Design Files.
- Time management, Organization, Communication, Reliable, Outgoing, Work well with others, and honesty.

Education

Candidate for Bachelor of Interior Architecture and Design

Minor in Sustainability

Expected: May 2024

University of Arkansas – Fayetteville

GPA: 3.4

Work Experience

Intern at Jen Tennill Interiors

May 2022 – August 2022

Jen Tennill Interiors, Mckinney, Texas

- Worked 20 hours/week to complete a required 200 hours for internship.
- Demonstrate ability to problem solve and increase overall profits by selling products to clients.
- Managed a storefront with high integrity and responsibility to alleviate duties for employers so that they could focus on their tasks.
- The overall business benefited from my communication and organization skills to create a system for the material library and client folders.

Organizations and Clubs

Kappa Kappa Gamma

August 2020 – Present

Kappa Kappa Gamma, University of Arkansas

- Using time management skills to maintain a certain GPA and amount of community service hours to remain an active member.
- Committed to the organization and attends meetings.
- Participated in being on the arts committee during recruitment.

ASID Student Member

August 2022 – Present

ADIS Student, University of Arkansas

- Being a part of a community that promotes the value of design.
- Using leadership skills and time management to play a role in shaping my profession by connecting with other designers and attending meetings and involvement in the organization.